Civil Action No. 07 CV 9729 (HB)

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs, Hartford Fire Insurance Company, The Hartford Financial Services Group, Inc. and Hartford Life, Inc. (collectively, "The Hartford" or "plaintiffs"), by their undersigned attorneys, for their First Amended Complaint allege:

SUBSTANCE OF THE ACTION

1. The Hartford, whose business dates back nearly 200 years, is one of the leading insurance and financial services providers in the United States. It brings this action to stop defendants from using The Hartford's famous name and trademarks in connection with a rogue insurance website (www.InstitutionalHartfordLife.com) designed to deceive consumers into believing it is connected to a site authorized by plaintiffs. The conduct of defendants is threatening irreparable harm to The Hartford, its valuable trademarks, and its hard earned reputation.

2. Plaintiffs assert claims for trademark infringement under Sections 32(1) of the U.S. Trademark (Lanham) Act of 1946, as amended, 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1); unfair competition under Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a); trademark dilution under Section 43(c) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c); violation of the Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act, Section 43(d) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d); unfair competition under New York common law; violation of the New York Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act, N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 349; and trademark dilution under New York law, N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 360-l. Plaintiffs seek temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, transfer of the InstitutionalHartfordLife.com domain name, recovery of up to three times the damages sustained by plaintiffs, defendants' ill-gotten profits, attorney's fees and such further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This Court has jurisdiction under Section 39 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1121; under Sections 1331, 1338, and 1367 of the Judicial Code, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1338 & 1367; and under principles of pendent jurisdiction.

4. Venue is proper in this district under Section 1391(b) of the Judicial Code, 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), in that a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims, including the infringing conduct complained of herein, occurred in this district, and upon information and belief defendants are transacting business in this district.

Upon information and belief, Moniker issued the registration for the domain name InstitutionalHartfordLife.com and has the right and ability to restrict its customers’ unlawful use of that domain name and the unlawful use of plaintiffs’ marks on the website posted at the www.InstitutionalHartfordLife.com website associated with that domain name.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

A. Plaintiffs and their HARTFORD Marks

11. The Hartford, whose business was founded in 1810, operates one of the largest insurance and financial services businesses in the United States. The Hartford is a leading provider of investment products; life insurance and group and employee benefits; automobile and homeowners insurance; business insurance and reinsurance. Plaintiffs and their subsidiaries issue and renew insurance policies to customers in all 50 states, and offer their diverse portfolio of insurance and financial services products to a broad spectrum of customers through independent agents and brokers, financial institutions, affinity groups and via the Internet. The Hartford has received numerous awards and honors including the Dalbar award for outstanding individual annuities service, and has been listed by Fortune magazine as one of America's "most admired companies."

12. Plaintiffs have for many years done their business under the trade name THE HARTFORD, and have provided their insurance and financial services and products under the marks THE HARTFORD, HARTFORD LIFE and other HARTFORD-inclusive marks (collectively, with THE HARTFORD trade name, the "HARTFORD Marks.")

13. The Hartford spends tens of millions of dollars annually in advertising and promoting THE HARTFORD Marks and its products and services provided under the HARTFORD Marks, including via television, radio, print media and on the Internet. Selected pages from The Hartford's Internet websites at <http://www.TheHartford.com> and <http://HartfordLife.com>, which feature the HARTFORD Marks in their addresses and site content, are annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

14. The Hartford is the largest seller of annuities in the United States and administers more than $20 billion of life insurance and annuity assets. Through its Hartford Life Insurance Company and Hartford Life and Annuity Insurance Company subsidiaries, The Hartford offers a range of insurance programs for corporations and other institutional clients, including programs through which employers offer life insurance to their employees. These programs, known as “The Hartford’s Institutional Life Insurance” products, are advertised on plaintiffs’

HartfordLife.com website at the Internet address <http://Institutional.HartfordLife.com>, which prominently features the HARTFORD Marks and references to The Hartford’s “Institutional Life Insurance” products.

15. The Hartford also uses the mark HARTFORD LIFE INSTITUTIONAL FUNDING in connection with mutual fund investment products.

16. Through long and exclusive use and a significant investment of time, money and effort over many years, and as a result of the quality of its products and services, The Hartford has developed enormous goodwill in its HARTFORD Marks, and the HARTFORD Marks have come to be identified exclusively with the products and services of plaintiffs. The HARTFORD Marks are among the best known marks in the insurance and financial services business.

17. The Hartford also owns numerous federal trademark registrations for the HARTFORD Marks, including but not limited to the following:

Reg. No.	Mark	Reg. Date	First Use	Goods/Services

Print-outs from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office website for each of the foregoing registrations are attached hereto as Exhibit B. These registrations are all valid, subsisting and in full force and effect, and, pursuant to Section 33(b) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1115(b), those bearing an asterisk are incontestable and constitute conclusive evidence of the validity of the registered marks shown therein, of The Hartford's ownership of these marks, and of The Hartford's exclusive right throughout the United States to use these marks in connection with the services identified in the registrations.

B. Unlawful Conduct of SAI and Ford

18. Defendants have no connection to plaintiffs and have never been authorized to use plaintiffs' HARTFORD Marks in any manner. Upon information and belief, defendants are not licensed as insurers or insurance agents in any state, nor are they in any other manner authorized to transact insurance business in any state.

19. Upon information and belief, on or about July 6, 2005, without plaintiffs' knowledge or permission, the defendants SAI and Ford (collectively, the "SAI defendants") obtained the domain name InstitutionalHartfordLife.com (the "Domain Name") at an auction and registered it with registrar Moniker.

20. Using the Domain Name, the SAI defendants thereafter posted a website at <http://www.InstitutionalHartfordLife.com> (the "Infringing Site") designed to deceive consumers into believing it is a legitimate website of plaintiffs, as detailed below.

21. The Domain Name (InstitutionalHartfordLife.com) and the Internet address for the Infringing Site (<http://www.InstitutionalHartfordLife.com>) feature the dominant portion of plaintiffs' THE HARTFORD mark, plaintiffs' entire HARTFORD LIFE mark and (juxtaposed) most of plaintiffs' HARTFORD LIFE INSTITUTIONAL FUNDING mark (juxtaposed), and are nearly identical to the Internet address that takes users to the legitimate webpage advertising The Hartford's Institutional Life Insurance products (<http://Institutional.HartfordLife.com>), print-outs of which are attached hereto as Exhibit C.

22. The home page of the Infringing Site bears the prominent heading "institutionalhartfordlife.com." Under the phrase "Find what you're looking for," the Infringing Site features, in bold-type, a list of HARTFORD Marks and other HARTFORD-inclusive designations including "The Hartford," "The Hartford Group," "The Hartford Insurance Group" and "Hartford Annuities." The bold-faced list also features the "Disclosure Statement" and "Structured Notes" that appear – falsely – to be connected to plaintiffs' business. Each of the foregoing designations also serves as a "hyperlink" users can click on to reach to other webpages.

23. Despite bearing marks of The Hartford, many of the bold-type hyperlinks on the Infringing Site are to third-party sites advertising products and services of competitors of The Hartford. Print-outs from the Infringing Site are attached hereto as Exhibit D.

24. In furtherance of the effort to deceive consumers into believing the Infringing Site is legitimately connected to The Hartford, under a section titled "About Us," the home page of the site states:

"We empower individuals, organizations and businesses, with our unique services. Diversification being our core strategy, we specialize in Structured Notes, The Hartford Insurance, Hartford Casualty Insurance, and an array of other services. Our mission is to provide quality resources."

25. The home page of the Infringing Site also bears a rotating base of prominent links that include "Adolph Hitler's Biography," associating the HARTFORD Marks with potentially inflammatory material completely unapproved and unauthorized by The Hartford. See Exhibit D.

26. Upon information and belief, the SAI defendants receive remuneration based on the number of users they lure to the Infringing Site and/or the number who click on the site's hyperlinks to web sites of others. Thus, the SAI defendants are blatantly trading on the recognition and goodwill of plaintiffs' HARTFORD Marks to deceitfully attract to their site consumers seeking a genuine website of The Hartford, in order to unjustly enrich the SAI defendants.

27. By the foregoing conduct, the SAI defendants have falsely represented that they and/or the goods and services promoted on the Infringing Site or accessible by hyperlink therefrom (collectively, the “SAI Goods and Services”), are legitimately connected with The Hartford.

28. Upon information and belief, the SAI defendants have also taken steps to hide their identity in order to evade responsibility for their unlawful and infringing conduct. Ordinarily, when someone registers a domain name, the registrant’s name and contact information are made available through “WhoIs” searches enabling members of the public to learn who owns a particular domain name and operates the website associated with that domain name. However, upon information and belief, the SAI defendants contracted with defendant Moniker to shield their identity using the “Moniker Privacy Service” offered by Moniker, to prevent others from determining who owns the Domain Name and the website associated with it. In place of the SAI defendants, “Moniker Privacy Services” has been listed as the registrant of record in Whois reports for the Domain Name. A WhoIs report for the Domain Name is annexed hereto as Exhibit E.

29. Upon information and belief, the SAI defendants have engaged in and are continuing to engage in the above conduct willfully and deliberately, with full knowledge of plaintiffs’ prior and exclusive rights in the HARTFORD Marks, and with an intent to misappropriate plaintiffs’ goodwill in the HARTFORD Marks and deceive consumers into believing that the SAI Goods and Services are legitimately connected with The Hartford.

C. Unlawful Conduct of Defendant Moniker

30. Upon information and belief, defendant Moniker is the registrar of the Domain Name for the SAI defendants, is in possession of contact information for the SAI defendants, and has the right and ability to remove or block access to the Infringing Site associated with the Domain Name. Moniker's standard Registration Agreement requires its customers to provide their names and contact information and prohibits its customers from, inter alia, "the uploading, posting or other transmittal any [sic] content that infringes any patent, trademark, trade secret, copyright or other proprietary rights of any party." A true and correct copy of these terms is annexed hereto as Exhibit F.

31. The Hartford has repeatedly notified defendant Moniker in writing that the Domain Name was registered without authorization and that the Infringing Site infringes the HARTFORD Marks, and has expressly requested that Moniker disable access to that site. In a recent communication to Moniker, a July 9, 2007 telephone message to Moniker's Chief Executive Officer and a July 17, 2007 letter to Moniker, The Hartford, by its counsel, specifically asked Moniker to disclose the identity of the SAI defendants (who were at the time unknown to The Hartford). Moniker did not respond to any of The Hartford's requests.

32. Defendant Moniker's refusal to disable access to the Infringing Site or provide information identifying the SAI defendants, even after being placed on express notice of the blatant violations of both its own written policy and The Hartford's exclusive trademark rights, have facilitated the unlawful activity conducted through the Domain Name and the Infringing Site and are a direct and proximate cause of the harm to The Hartford arising therefrom.

33. Upon information and belief, defendant Moniker has engaged in and is continuing to engage in the above conduct willfully and deliberately, and with knowing disregard for The Hartford's rights and the irreparable harm caused to The Hartford by the wrongful conduct described above.

D. Harm to Plaintiffs

34. The above-described conduct of defendants is likely to cause confusion, to cause mistake or to deceive consumers as to the source, origin or sponsorship of the Infringing Site and the SAI Goods and Services, and wrests from The Hartford the ability to control the use of its own name and trademarks and the valuable goodwill therein.

35. The above-described conduct of defendants has caused and will continue causing irreparable harm to plaintiffs, their reputation and goodwill, including in this judicial district, unless enjoined by this Court. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF --
FEDERAL TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT
(15 U.S.C. § 1114(1))

36. Paragraphs 1-35 above are realleged and incorporated herein by reference.

37. The SAI defendants' unauthorized use of plaintiffs' federally-registered HARTFORD Marks and colorable imitations thereof in connection with the Infringing Site and the SAI Goods and Services is likely to cause consumers and members of the trade to be confused, deceived or mistaken regarding the source, quality, supervision, sponsorship or approval of the Infringing Site and the SAI Goods and Services; to falsely believe that the Infringing Site and the SAI Goods and Services are offered, authorized, sponsored or guaranteed by or otherwise connected with plaintiffs; to falsely believe that the quality of the Infringing Site and SAI Goods and Services is guaranteed, assured and/or supervised by plaintiffs; and/or to falsely believe that the SAI defendants are legitimately connected to plaintiffs.

38. By refusing to disable the Infringing Website, refusing to transfer the infringing

Domain Name and shielding the identity of the SAI defendants, defendant Moniker has facilitated and contributed to the above infringing conduct, and is jointly and severally liable therefor.

39. Defendants' infringement of plaintiffs' HARTFORD Marks is willful, undertaken with knowledge of plaintiffs' prior rights and intended to reap the benefit of the goodwill of plaintiffs, and violates Section 32(1) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1).

40. The aforesaid conduct is causing plaintiffs irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law and, unless restrained, will continue to cause irreparable harm.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF --
FEDERAL UNFAIR COMPETITION
(15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

41. Paragraphs 1-40 above are realleged and incorporated herein by reference.

42. The SAI defendants' unauthorized use of plaintiffs' HARTFORD Marks and colorable imitations thereof in connection with the Infringing Site and the SAI Goods and Services constitutes a false designation of origin, a false description of the Infringing Site and the SAI Goods and Services, and a false and misleading representation that the SAI defendants, the Infringing Site and the SAI Goods and Services are authorized, sponsored or guaranteed by or otherwise connected with plaintiffs or that the Infringing Site and the SAI Goods and Services meet the same level of quality as plaintiffs' products and services or that the Infringing Site or the SAI Goods and Services are supervised, controlled by or otherwise connected with plaintiffs.

43. The SAI defendants' unauthorized use of the HARTFORD Marks and colorable imitations thereof is likely to cause mistake, or to deceive as to the affiliation or association of defendants with plaintiffs, or as to the origin, sponsorship or approval of Infringing Site and/or the SAI Goods and Services, and places beyond plaintiffs' control their own reputation.

44. By refusing to disable the Infringing Site, refusing to transfer the infringing Domain Name and shielding the identity of the SAI defendants, defendant Moniker has facilitated and contributed to the above unlawful conduct, and is jointly and severally liable therefor.

45. Defendants' above-described acts are willful, undertaken with knowledge of plaintiffs' prior rights and intended to reap the benefit of plaintiffs' goodwill, and violate Section 43(a)(1)(A) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)(1)(A).

46. The aforesaid conduct is causing plaintiffs irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law and, unless restrained, will continue to cause irreparable harm.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF --
FEDERAL TRADEMARK DILUTION
(15 U.S.C. § 1125(c))

47. Paragraphs 1-47 above are realleged and incorporated herein by reference.

48. As a result of extensive use and promotion of the HARTFORD Marks and the products and services offered thereunder by plaintiffs for many years, the HARTFORD Marks are famous throughout the United States, are highly distinctive of plaintiffs' products and services and are uniquely and exclusively associated with plaintiffs. The HARTFORD Marks became famous long before defendants commenced their unauthorized use and/or facilitation of use of the HARTFORD Marks and colorable imitations thereof as described herein.

49. The SAI defendants' commercial use of the HARTFORD Marks and colorable imitations thereof in connection with the Infringing Site and the SAI Goods and Services, including the use of these marks in connection with listings for products such as "Adolph Hitler's Biography" on the Infringing Site, is diluting plaintiffs' famous HARTFORD Marks by lessening the capacity of the marks to exclusively identify and distinguish plaintiffs and their goods and by tarnishing the HARTFORD Marks and damaging the good reputation of plaintiffs and their HARTFORD Marks.

50. By refusing to disable the Infringing Site, refusing to transfer the infringing Domain Name and shielding the identity of the SAI defendants, defendant Moniker has facilitated and contributed to the above unlawful conduct, and is jointly and severally liable therefor.

51. Upon information and belief, the foregoing acts were done willfully and deliberately, commencing long after plaintiffs' HARTFORD Marks became famous, and with an intent to reap the benefit of plaintiffs' goodwill and dilute the distinctiveness of and tarnish plaintiffs' marks in violation of Section 43(c) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).

52. Upon information and belief, at all relevant times during which the Infringing Site was posted and the SAI Goods and Services were promoted thereon using the HARTFORD Marks and colorable imitations thereof, Section 43(c) of the Lanham Act was in effect and the defendants had actual or constructive knowledge thereof.

53. The aforesaid conduct is causing plaintiffs irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law and, unless restrained, will continue to cause irreparable harm.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF --
VIOLATION OF ANTICYBERSQUATTING
CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT
(15 U.S.C. § 1125(d))

54. Paragraphs 1-53 above are realleged and incorporated herein by reference.

55. The Domain Name is confusingly similar to and dilutive of plaintiffs' federally registered THE HARTFORD and HARTFORD LIFE marks, and other HARTFORD Marks.

56. The SAI defendants and defendant Moniker had full knowledge of plaintiffs' prior rights in these marks before Moniker issued and the SAI defendants secured the registration for the Domain Name. The Domain Name is not the legal name of any of the defendants and is not being used in connection with the bona fide offering of goods and services by any of the defendants. Upon information and belief, the Domain Name is being used by the SAI Defendants with the bad faith intent to reap the benefit of the goodwill in plaintiffs' HARTFORD Marks, divert consumers to the Infringing Site for defendants' own commercial gain and to otherwise profit from unauthorized use of plaintiffs' marks.

57. By registering the Domain Name for the SAI defendants, refusing to disable the Infringing Site, refusing to transfer the infringing Domain Name to plaintiffs and shielding the identity of the SAI defendants, defendant Moniker has facilitated and contributed to the unlawful conduct described above, and is jointly and severally liable therefor.

58. The aforesaid acts and conduct of defendants take advantage of the fame and goodwill of plaintiffs' HARTFORD Marks, in violation of the Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act, Section 43(d) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d).

59. The defendants' aforesaid conduct has caused and will continue to cause irreparable harm to plaintiffs unless the Court orders the forfeiture or cancellation of the Domain Name or transfer of the Domain Name to plaintiffs.

FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF --
UNFAIR COMPETITION UNDER NEW YORK COMMON LAW

60. Paragraphs 1-59 above are realleged and incorporated herein by reference.

61. Defendants' conduct complained of herein is likely to confuse the public as to the origin, source or sponsorship of defendants' goods and services, or to cause mistake or to deceive the public into believing that defendants' goods and services are authorized, sponsored, endorsed, or licensed by, or affiliated with, Plaintiffs, in violation of plaintiffs' rights in the HARTFORD Marks under state common law.

62. Upon information and belief, defendants chose to use the HARTFORD Marks and colorable imitations thereof with constructive and actual knowledge of plaintiffs' prior use of and rights in the HARTFORD Marks in connection with insurance and financial products and services. By using the valuable and distinctive HARTFORD Marks and colorable imitations thereof in connection with similar goods and services, defendants have unjustly enriched themselves and damaged plaintiffs.

63. The aforesaid conduct is causing plaintiffs irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law and, unless restrained, will continue to cause irreparable harm.

SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF --
VIOLATION OF THE NEW YORK DECEPTIVE
AND UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICES ACT
(N.Y. General Business Law § 349)

64. Paragraphs 1-63 above are realleged and incorporated herein by reference.

65. Defendants' use and/or facilitation of use of the HARTFORD Marks and colorable imitations thereof has the capacity to deceive and is deceiving the public as to the source or sponsorship of defendants' goods and services. As a result, the public will be damaged.

66. Defendants' conduct is willful and in knowing disregard of plaintiffs' rights.

67. Defendants have been and are engaged in deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of a business, trade or commerce in violation of Section 349 of the New York General Business Law.

68. The aforesaid conduct is causing plaintiffs irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law and, unless restrained, will continue to cause irreparable harm.

SEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF --
TRADEMARK DILUTION UNDER NEW YORK LAW
(N.Y. General Business Law § 360-l)

69. Paragraphs 1-68 above are realleged and incorporated herein by reference.

70. As a result of extensive use and promotion of the HARTFORD Marks by plaintiffs for many years, the HARTFORD Marks are famous and extraordinarily well known throughout this State, are highly distinctive of plaintiffs' products and services and are uniquely and exclusively associated with plaintiffs. The HARTFORD Marks became famous long before defendants commenced their unauthorized use and/or facilitation of use of the HARTFORD Marks and colorable imitations thereof.

71. Defendants' unauthorized use of and/or facilitation of use of the HARTFORD Marks and colorable imitations thereof is diluting and is likely to continue diluting such marks by blurring the distinctiveness thereof and by tarnishment, and is likely to injure plaintiffs' business reputation in that it has removed plaintiffs' reputation from their own control and that deficiencies in or complaints about defendants' goods and services will redound to the harm of plaintiffs, all in violation of Section 360-1 of the General Business Law of the State of New York.

72. The aforesaid conduct is causing plaintiffs irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law and, unless restrained, will continue to cause irreparable harm.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment as follows:

A. Ordering defendant Moniker to disclose the identity of any and all registrants and users of the Domain Name, including by providing all contact information for such persons or entities that are known to Moniker;

B. Temporarily, preliminarily and permanently enjoining defendants, their employees, agents, licensees, attorneys, successors, parents, affiliates, divisions, subsidiaries and assigns, and all those in active concert and participation with any of them, including any entities controlled in whole or in part by any defendant or any entity created by any defendant, from infringing plaintiffs' HARTFORD Marks; from falsely designating the origin, sponsorship or affiliation of their business or goods or services; from unfairly competing with plaintiffs; from misusing or appropriating plaintiffs' marks for any Internet address; and from commercially exploiting plaintiffs' identity; and specifically from:

(i) utilizing the HARTFORD Marks or any other name or mark confusingly similar thereto, including, but not limited to THE HARTFORD, HARTFORD LIFE or "institutionalhartfordlife.com" and/or other HARTFORD-inclusive marks names or terms (collectively, "Prohibited Marks") or any other indicia or symbols or marks associated with plaintiffs, or any copies, simulations, variations or colorable imitations thereof, in connection with any products or services or in advertising or promotion thereof;

(ii) selling, offering for sale or displaying goods, or offering services, under or bearing or incorporating any Prohibited Marks or any other indicia associated with plaintiffs, or any copies, simulations, variations or colorable imitations thereof;

(iii) imitating, copying, using, reproducing, displaying, maintaining on any database or computer, or authorizing or permitting any third party to imitate, copy, use, reproduce, display, or maintain by computer or otherwise, any Prohibited Marks or any other indicia associated with plaintiffs, or any copies, simulations, variations or colorable imitations thereof;

(iv) using, registering, or seeking to register any trademark, service mark, trade name, logo, business name, domain name or other computer address or any other identifier incorporating any Prohibited Marks or any other indicia associated with plaintiffs, or any copies, simulations, variations or colorable imitations thereof, or acting in any fashion which may be calculated to falsely represent that any of defendants' businesses or the products or services provided, promoted or offered by defendants are sponsored by, authorized by, licensed by, or in any other way associated with plaintiffs;

(v) owning, acquiring, registering, or seeking to register any domain name, sub-domain name, Internet address, e-mail address or other electronic identifier that uses or incorporates the term HARTFORD or any other Prohibited Marks in whole or in part;

(vi) using or making any reference to THE HARTFORD, HARTFORD LIFE or any other Prohibited Marks on any website owned or controlled by any of the defendants, including on such site or in any keywords, metatags or other code embedded in the site;

(vii) listing any reference to itself under THE HARTFORD, HARTFORD LIFE or any other Prohibited Marks with any ad server, list server, search engine or similar service; or

(viii) aiding, assisting or abetting any other party in doing any act prohibited by sub-paragraphs (i) through (vii) above;

C. Directing that defendants deliver up to plaintiffs all products, packaging, labels, stickers, signs, stationery, brochures, computer disks and other storage devices, and other materials incorporating or bearing any Prohibited Marks;

D. Directing that defendants discontinue use of, refrain from re-registering and transfer to plaintiffs the InstitutionalHartfordlife.com domain name and any other domain names owned or controlled by defendants which use or incorporate the term HARTFORD or any other Prohibited Marks, in whole or part, within ten (10) days after entry of judgment pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d)(1)(C), and directing that if defendants fail to take such steps within the ten (10) day period, then the appropriate domain name registrar and web server shall, promptly following receipt of copy of such judgment, take all steps necessary to comply with said judgment, including transfer to plaintiffs of the InstitutionalHartfordlife.com domain name and any other domain names owned or controlled by defendants which use or incorporate the term HARTFORD or any other Prohibited Marks, and removal of any material from the website(s) associated with such domain names;

E. Directing that defendant file with the Court and serve upon plaintiffs' counsel within thirty (30) days after entry of judgment a report in writing under oath setting forth in detail the manner and form in which defendant has complied with the requirements of the foregoing injunction and order;

F. Directing such other relief as the Court may deem appropriate to prevent the public from deriving the erroneous impression that defendants or defendants' businesses are associated or connected with plaintiffs or that any products or services provided, promoted or sold by defendants are authorized by plaintiffs or are related in any way to plaintiffs or their products and services;

G. Awarding plaintiffs monetary relief, including three times plaintiffs' actual damages and defendants' profits as permitted under 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a) and 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)(2), and statutory damages as provided under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d), arising out of defendants' acts of trademark infringement, unfair competition, dilution and cybersquatting;

H. Awarding plaintiffs their costs in this civil action, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses; and

I. Granting to plaintiffs such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

In the event we are able to identify such a third party and effectuate such a Post Term Renewal and Transfer, we may notify you via email after the transaction is completed. Additionally, in our discretion, you may be eligible to receive a portion of the Net Proceeds received by us as a result of a Post Term Transfer of your domain name. These Net Proceeds will be added to your account and are to be used for Moniker related services only. For purposes of this paragraph, "Net Proceeds" shall mean the total fees paid to us by another party or our third party vendor as a result of a Post Term Renewal and Transfer, less any registry fees, credit card charge-backs, processing and check fees, and other costs or fees associated with the Post Term Renewal and Transfer of the domain name. If we do pay you a portion of the Net Proceeds, they will be added to your Moniker account to be used for domain related services only. You agree that we shall have no obligation to pay you, and you shall have no right to receive, any percentage of the Net Proceeds unless, within ninety (90) days after the date of our notification to you, you first provide us with the name, address and related information requested by us (including, but not limited to, a Form W-9, if applicable) in our notification. We cannot guarantee, and we make no representation or promise, that any Post Term Renewal and Transfer will occur with respect to your domain name or that we will pay you any Net Proceeds.

7. NEW CUSTOMERS THROUGH A BACKORDER SERVICE.

Click here to review the Domain Deletion and Auto-Renew Policy

If you are registering a domain name through a backorder service and that domain name was registered with, and not yet deleted by, Moniker at the time of your purchase, you acknowledge and agree that the term of your registration will be for a period of one year from the original expiration date, (not the date in which you took control of the domain name) for the domain name immediately prior to your purchase, as the registration is the result of a Post Term Renewal and Transfer. If you are registering a domain name through a backorder service and the domain name was not registered with Moniker at the time of your purchase but was deleted by the applicable top-level domain registry at the time of your purchase, you acknowledge and agree that the term of your registration will be for a period of one year from the date it is initially registered with Moniker or another registrar by the provider of the backorder service.

8. MODIFICATIONS TO YOUR ACCOUNT

In order to change any of your account information with us, you must use your Account Number or User Name and the Password. Please safeguard your Account Number and Password from any unauthorized use. In no event will we be liable for the unauthorized use or misuse of your Account Number or Password.

9. DOMAIN NAME DISPUTE POLICY

If you reserved or registered a domain name through us, you agree to be bound by our current domain name dispute policy that is incorporated herein and made a part of this Agreement by reference. You also agree to submit to proceedings commenced under the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy ("UDRP") and that these may be modified from time to time. The current version of this dispute policy may be found at our Web site: <http://www.moniker.com/help/disputepolicies.jsp>. Please take the time to familiarize yourself with that policy.

10. DOMAIN NAME DISPUTE POLICY MODIFICATIONS

You agree that we, in our sole discretion, may modify our dispute policy. We may post any such revised policy on our Web site at least thirty (30) calendar days before it becomes effective. You agree that, by maintaining the reservation or registration of your domain name after modifications to the dispute policy become effective, you have agreed to these modifications. You acknowledge that if you do not agree to any such modification, you may terminate this Agreement. We will not refund any fees paid by you if you terminate your Agreement with us.

11. DOMAIN NAME DISPUTES

You agree that, if your use of our domain name registration services is challenged by a third party, you will be subject to the provisions specified in our dispute policy in effect at the time of the dispute. You agree that in the event a domain name dispute arises with any third party, you will indemnify and hold us harmless pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth below in this Agreement. If we are notified that a complaint has been filed with another registrar, a judicial or administrative body regarding your use of our domain name registration services, you agree not to make any changes to your domain name record without our prior approval. We may not allow you to make changes to such domain name record until we are directed to do so by the judicial or administrative body, or we receive notification by you and the other party contesting your registration and use of our domain name registration services that the dispute has been settled. Furthermore, you agree that if you are subject to litigation regarding your registration and use of our domain name registration services, we may deposit control of your domain name record into the registry of the court by supplying a party with a registrar certificate from us. You agree that we will comply with all court orders, domestic or international, directed against you and/or the domain name registration and may move such domains into our disputed domain account at Moniker. The Registered Name Holder shall agree that its registration of the Registered Name shall be subject to suspension, cancellation, or transfer pursuant to any ICANN adopted specification or policy, or pursuant to any registrar or registry procedure not inconsistent with an ICANN adopted specification or policy, (1) to correct mistakes by Registrar or the Registry Operator in registering the name or (2) for the resolution of disputes concerning the Registered Name.

For the adjudication of disputes concerning or arising from use of the Registered Name, the Registered Name Holder shall submit, without prejudice to other potentially applicable jurisdictions, to the jurisdiction of the courts (1) of the Registered Name Holder's domicile and (2) where Registrar is located.

Your continued use of our services shall ratify any unauthorized actions of your agent. By acting on your behalf, your agent certifies that he or she is authorized to apply for our services on your behalf, that he or she is authorized to bind you to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and that he or she has apprised you of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. In addition, you are responsible for any errors made by your agent. Moniker and its contractors shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, special or consequential damages resulting from the use or inability to use any of the Moniker services or for the cost of procurement of substitute services. If we are notified that a complaint has been filed with a judicial or administrative body regarding your use of our domain name registration services, you agree not to make any changes to your domain name record without our prior approval. We may not allow you to make changes to such domain name record until (i) we are directed to do so by the judicial or administrative body, or (ii) we receive notification by you and the other party contesting your registration and use of our domain name registration services that the dispute has been settled. (.INFO) With respect to any registration of a .INFO second level domain name, you agree to the following terms:

You agree to submit to proceedings under ICANN's Uniform Domain Name Dispute Policy (UDRP) and comply with the requirements set forth by Afllias for domain names registered during the Sunrise Period, including the mandatory Sunrise Dispute Resolution Policy. These policies are subject to modification by Afllias in its discretion.

You agree to immediately correct and update the registration information for the .INFO registered domain name during registration term for such domain name; failure to correct this information shall constitute a breach of this Agreement.

You acknowledge that Afllias, the registry operator for .INFO, will have no liability of any kind for any loss or liability resulting from the proceedings and processes relating to the Sunrise Period or the Land Rush Period, including, without limitation: (a) the ability or inability of a registrant to obtain a given domain name during these periods, and (b) the results of any dispute over a Sunrise Registration.

Moniker and Afllias, the registry operator for .INFO, expressly reserve the right to deny, cancel or transfer any registration that either shall deem necessary, in its discretion, to protect the integrity and stability of the .INFO registry, to comply with any applicable laws, government rules or requirements, requests of law enforcement, in compliance with any dispute resolution process, or to avoid any liability, civil or criminal, on the part of Moniker and/or Afllias as well as their affiliates, subsidiaries, officers, directors and employees. Moniker and Afllias also reserve the right to lock a domain name during resolution of a dispute.

17. BREACH

You agree that your failure to abide by any provision of this Agreement, any Moniker operating rule or policy, the dispute policy, or your willful provision of inaccurate or unreliable information as part of the application process, or your failure to update your information to keep it current, complete or accurate, or your failure to respond for over fifteen (15) calendar days to inquiries from us concerning the accuracy of the contact details associated with your domain name registration may be considered by us to be a material breach and that we may provide a written notice, describing the breach, to you. If within ten (10) calendar days of the date of such notice, you fail to provide evidence, which is reasonably satisfactory to us, that you have not breached your obligations under the Agreement, then we may delete the registration or reservation of your domain name and/or terminate the other Moniker service(s) you are using without further notice. We will not refund any fees paid by you if we terminate your Agreement due to your breach. Any such breach by you shall not be deemed to be excused simply because we did not act earlier in response to that, or any other breach, by you.

18. NO GUARANTEE

19. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Furthermore, you agree that we may suspend, cancel or transfer your domain name registration services in order to: (i) correct mistakes made by us or the registry in registering your chosen domain name, or (ii) to resolve a dispute under our dispute policy. We will not refund any fees paid by you if we terminate your services.

23. SEVERABILITY

You agree that the terms of this Agreement are severable. If any term or provision is declared invalid or unenforceable, that term or provision will be construed consistent with applicable law as nearly as possible to reflect the original intentions of the parties, and the remaining terms and provisions will remain in full force and effect.

When requesting to transfer your domain to (or from) Moniker to (or from) another Registrar, Moniker must receive authorization by you in advance of such transfer request. This authorization can come in the form of an email from the account holder and/or registrant, or via authorized fax showing proof of ownership of the domain. When transferring a domain name to Moniker, your registration will be extended for one year, provided that in no event shall the total unexpired term of the registration exceed ten (10) years.

You agree to maintain accurate records appropriate to document and prove the initial domain name registration date, regardless of the number of Registrars with which you entered into a contract for registration services.

Your rights under this Agreement are not assignable and any attempt by your creditors to obtain an interest in your rights under this Agreement, whether by attachment, levy, garnishment or otherwise, renders this Agreement voidable at our option.
